“After listening for both days, I walked away with a clear correct way to handle backgrounds. Clearly presented and made the legal/importance of handling investigations different than we have been.”

“It was clear the presenter has a vast amount of experience in this topic. He gave lots of real-world examples of why thorough backgrounds are critical to our agencies. I wish I had this training before I did my first background investigation.”

“Very in depth on the complete background process. Good discussion on real problems and issues that arise in the background process.”
