"As always, On-Target supplies excellent instructors. The instructor engaged the class and is clearly a subject matter expert."

"So many real-life examples. I love knowing where this is going to help me on scenes. Such a fun class. I love that it was really relaxed. He was so easy to ask for assistance as needed."

"Instructor took a complicated subject and broke it down to where where it was easily understood. He also gave me tricks that will help apply these new skills at work. I am leaving this class confident in the "manual" mode and I am able to use the settings to take a clear photo."
