"I immensely enjoyed your course. Your humble yet insightful delivery, coupled with an encouraging and open approach to discussion and your great personality, facilitated meaningful conversations both during class and during breaks. Having undergone over 3,000 hours of law enforcement training, you are among the top-tier instructors I've had the privilege of learning from."
Sgt. Brandon Keene, Springfield PD

"Materials and data presented were excellent. During course I was able to build a plan for when I return to implement procedures. Almost all aspects of this course has value in assisting supervisors take control and assist their investigators."
